Your Itinerary

DAY 1 | SAN FRANCISCO

Welcome to San Francisco. This is it. Drop your bags at the hotel, then it's time to hit the streets. See that tram over there? That's the famous San Francisco Cable Car. It's your first day, so why not go and scope out the Golden Gate Bridge or hire a bike and ride to Sausalito? Whatever you choose, don't forget to stop for selfies. On the way back, catch the ferry and have a drink to celebrate. You deserve it.

DAY 2 | SAN FRANCISCO

Rise and shine, then get dressed and scuttle over to the Crab Station at Fisherman's Wharf for a bowl of their infamous chowder. Rumour has it, it tastes like a warm hug in a bowl. After, walk off that full tummy and spot the seal colony next to Pier 39 (this place is so worth it for the noises they make alone). This afternoon, go exploring or hit up Alcatraz to end the day.

MEALS:

+ Breakfast

DAY 3 | SAN FRANCISCO

Today, get twisted: it's time to check out one of the most iconic streets in San Francisco. Lined with colourful Victorian style houses, Lombard Street has eight spectacular hairpin turns – so sit back and watch the cars slowly twist and turn down the hill. While you're outside, hike to the top of Twin Peaks and take in the view of Downtown San Fran. How 'bout that view?

MEALS:

+ Breakfast

DAY 4 | SAN FRANCISCO

Barneys, Bloomingdale's, Macy's – oh my! Spend your last day in San Francisco doing what any respectable person would do: shop away your feelings in Union Square, aka the crown jewel of all shopping districts. When you're done, it's time to jet off. One question remains: where will you go?

Passenger safety

One of the best parts of travelling is experiencing the nightlife and entertainment each city has to offer. However, amidst the fun and excitement, it's important to be aware of your surroundings and personal safety as well. Before you hit the road with us, be sure to familiarise yourself with the following safety information.

When you're on a night out, remember to avoid walking alone, particularly through deserted areas like beaches and back streets. Always stick together, take a registered taxi where possible, and keep a note of your accommodation details so you can find your way back to your fellow Topdeckers if you become separated. It's also a good idea to get your Topdeck trip mates' mobile numbers in case you need to get hold of them while out and about.

In some countries, alcoholic measures can be considerably larger than what you may be used to. Try to keep track of what you're drinking, and if you see one of your trip mates looking a little worse for wear, take them back to your accommodation. Never leave your drink unattended.

It's also important to be aware that what you might consider harmless flirting may be interpreted differently in some countries. Be yourself and have fun, but stay savvy – you don't want to find yourself in an uncomfortable situation.
